

Sean Midwood – VP North America and Partner

Sean Midwood CD2, SSM, MSc, BEng, IEEE \(Snr Mbr\)

Sean Midwood joins ASSIG after a 47-year career with the Royal Canadian Navy, NATO's NCIA and as an independent consultant specializing in tech startups related to the fields of Intelligence, Surveillance and Reconnaissance(ISR). Sean has extensive experience in Operations, Program/Project Management and Board Governance. Sean specialized in Combat Systems: Held Senior Operational/Engineering Staff positions; was the Officer in Charge during the disposal of HMCS MACKENZIE and construction/delivery of HMCS REGINA; was PM for 2 Major Crown Projects(CANTASS/SQS 510): and was a Project Engineer for the NATO Sea Sparrow Missile System. At NATO's NC3A/NCIA Sean specialized in and led various Joint ISR \(Multi-Sensor Aerospace- Ground Joint\(ISR\) Interoperability Coalition\(MAJIIC\)/Alliance Ground Surveillance\(AGS\)\) teams and was the Chief Of Staff to the Chief Technology Officer and Director of Service Strategy.

Sean attended the United States Naval Post Graduate School where he earned a Masters of Science in Electrical Engineering focused on Engineering Acoustics and Multi Sensor Data Fusion within the Undersea Warfare Program.